DEMAND FALLS OFF.

Leading Stocks Weaken, But Some Specialties Make Further Gains.

New York, Jan. 29.—Gains made among the standard stocks on yesterday's rise were considerably reduced today. Apparently the most pressing requirements of the short interest had been satisfied and the demand fell off, with a resultant weakening in market values. This was especially true among leading stocks such as Reading, Union Pacific, Steel, Amalgamated and the Hill shares. The specialties fared better. There was little pressure against these stocks and some of them made further gains. News from London that peace negotiations had been broken off was followed by the most active selling of the session. Although the conclusion of these negotiations had been definitely forecasted and the news had no pronounced influence on speculative sentiment, bear traders were able to utilize this development with some success. In the same way bears professed disappointment at the quarterly report of the steel corporation on the ground that earnings were not as large as some estimates had called for.

A factor which, in the opinion of many traders, was detrimental to the general market was the movement in the American Can stocks which have brought them into prominence during the last week. Can common sold today at 40 3/4, as compared with 28 1/2 last Wednesday. The preferred in the same time rose from 115 3/8 to 123. The spectacular fluctuations in these issues apparently were the result of bold manipulation, and the standard issues today did not follow the lead thus given. There were, however, a few stocks which developed conspicuous strength. Harvester continued its advance, moving up five points. Southern Pacific was in steady demand and rose over two points, buying having been stimulated by rumors concerning approach of an agreement in the negotiations for dissolution of the Harriman merger. Illinois Central was stronger on the appearance of the December report showing a net increase of $108,000.

Bond prices were somewhat easier. Total sales, par value, $1,875,000. Panama threes advanced 15 on call.

HOMICIDE CHARGE DISMISSED

"Sailor" Smith Not Responsible For Death of Opponent,
"Chick" Rose in Boxing Bout—Dr. C. A. Phillips Said
Rose Was in Fine Condition and That Death Was Accidental.

New York, Jan. 29.—Magistrate Geismayer today discharged from custody James B. Smith, the pugilist who knocked out "Chick" Rose in a boxing exhibition in Brooklyn Monday night. Rose died without regaining consciousness and Smith was locked up on a charge of homicide. The court held him not guilty.

Dr. Charles A. Phillips, examining physician of the club where the bout was staged, told the court that he had examined the boxers before they entered the ring. He found, he said, that both were in excellent physical condition, and said that in his opinion Rose's death was caused by accident.

Rose had never appeared in a public boxing exhibition before. Up to the sixth round, when he was knocked out, the bout had been an even one.

WOULD OPEN OLYMPIC GAMES TO PROFESSIONALS

President Willis Favors Bringing Together Best Athletes of the World.

London, Jan. 29.—At the annual dinner of the South London Harriers club tonight, President Willis, who said the club was the pioneer in international athletics, made the startling proposal that the next Olympic games should be open to both amateurs and professionals.

Without any direct reference to the Thorpe incident, he contended that the line between professionalism and amateurism was less sharply drawn in other countries than in England, and that therefore England was not in the same position to compete as other countries. He argued that until the Olympic games were thrown open to the professionals and the best athletes any country was able to produce were brought together, England's position as the premier athletic country of the world could never again be attained.

Sporting Life, commenting on the Thorpe incident, completely endorsed the Amateur Athletic union of the United States and thinks that its ample apology should be accepted in the spirit in which it was offered.

PACKAGES IGNITE UPON BEING OPENED

London Suffragettes Send Them to Asquith Through the Mail.

London, Jan. 29.—The suffragettes resumed their window breaking and post box outrages on a small scale tonight, but their endeavors were sufficient to maintain a state of nervous apprehension among the shopkeepers and the large bodies of police and private watchmen guarding the streets and buildings.

The windows in some of the government offices and in the offices of the Hamburg-American Packet company were broken. A few arrests were made.

Many packages have been found in the various post offices which on being opened burst into flames. Some of them were addressed to Premier Asquith and Chancellor Lloyd-George.

SHUGRUE BEATS CROSS.

Had the Better of Seven of the Ten Rounds.

New York, Jan. 29.—Young Shugrue of this city outfigured Leach Cross, the local lightweight, in seven out of ten rounds at Madison Square Garden tonight. Near the end of the fourth round, Cross, after "stalling" and apparently trying, suddenly with a hard right to the jaw sent Shugrue down for three seconds, when the bell ended the round. Cross outpointed his man during the next two rounds but Shugrue had the better of the remainder of the bout.

"Young Jack" O'Brien of Philadelphia, who was to have fought Phil Cross, a brother of Leach, explained that he had hurt his hand in a bout at Brodway Monday night and the club physician would not permit him to go on.

Jimmy Coffey of this city was substituted and fought a draw with Cross.

Capablanca Wins Another.
New York, Jan. 29.—In forty moves

Jose R. Capablanca defeated a Kuchik tonight in the eighth round of the chess masters' tournament and retained his lead and string of straight victories. By defeating David Janowski, champion of France, Charles Jaffe retained second place in the tournament.

Marshall moved up past Janowski into fourth place by winning from Morison of Toronto. Drawn games were registered between Tenenwurz and Liebenstein and between Rubinstein and Zapolon.

HARVARD BASEBALL SCHEDULE.

Crimson Opens Season Against the World's Champions at Boston.

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 29.—The Harvard college baseball nine has 39 games on this year's schedule which was announced tonight. The Crimson will open its season against the world's champion Red Sox at Boston April 1. On the southern trip which follows Harvard will play Annapolis, Johns Hopkins, Georgetown and the Baltimore team of the International league. The games with Yale, as usual, will close the season.

DELEHANTY WALKED.

Hadn't the Carfare to Take Him to His First Job.

Few baseball players today want to go back to the "good old days" referred to by the veterans. In the "good old days" clubs seldom advanced transportation to the recruits and it was up to the latter to report the best way they could. As a result, the recruits generally tied up with some club in their neighborhood and Ed Delehanty, famous the land over as a mighty batter, made such a choice. Ed, who had acquired local fame as a batter in reports of offense from several clubs. He picked Mansfield.

J. H. Knisely of Toledo, who was one of the backers of the Mansfield club, in those days—back in 1886—tells the story of Delehanty's professional debut as follows:

"Six or seven of us business men raised enough money in Mansfield to lease a field and fence it in and build a grandstand, also obtain a franchise in what was called the Tri-state league. I was made the secretary. Then we set to work signing players. Delehanty was among those we wrote to. We had heard how he was batting like a demon on the lots in Cleveland and went after him. We did not send him any money. We merely told him that if he would come to Mansfield we would give him a trial. It never occurred to us that he might not have money to pay his transportation, but it seems his folks objected to his playing ball and refused to let him have any. But that did not stop Ed. He wanted to become a professional and started at once. He rode freights on the Big Four as far as Crestline and then started to walk the remaining twelve miles to Mansfield. The roads were not traveled in those days and there were no trolley cars to help him along.

"But luck was with him. After he had trudged along for four miles, Dr. Craig of Mansfield overtook him and gave him a lift, leaving a man to ride the remainder of the way. Ed came at once to my office, not stopping to wash away the signs of his dusty journey.

"He was a natural born ball player and a new suit of clothes. He signed him at once and he played the next day and made good right at the start. He began as a second baseman but played nearly every position on the diamond before the season was over. He was a natural born ball player and placed Mansfield on the map in the baseball world."

BOXING CLUBS WARNED.

Governor Sulzer Says Bouts Must Not Deteriorate Into Brutal Sluggings.

Boxing exhibitions are to be permitted to deteriorate into brutal slugging matches, Governor Sulzer proposes to recommend to the New York legislature the repeal of the Frawley law which created the state athletic commission. Unless there is an uplift of the sport to a plane where it cannot offend the moral sentiment of communities, the governor says he will act.

Governor Sulzer made public a letter from James R. Price, recently appointed a member of the state athletic commission, in reply to one written by the governor defining his attitude on the question of boxing. Mr. Price says: "The commission decided unanimously to do everything in its power to carry out your wishes to the letter, and it will take steps immediately to see that all bouts are conducted on a clean, scientific basis, and that all brutalizing matches are eliminated."

Advice to the Heart-Hungry Coal Dealer:

Dear Editor:—

I am a coal dealer and am deeply in love with a young lady of high social standing.

She says that an ordinary coal man is beneath her scale.

A lump comes into my throat every time she turns me down.

Can you suggest a weigh for me to lighten the load in my heart?
